Chapter 1 by Gwideon

Hello is anyone there. Ok the events your about to read may be fantastical but I assure you they happened. Ok let's start from the begining. My name is Conner Young. I used to live in a small apartment in the historic district of Empire City. I am 20 years old. I have blonde hair and storm grey eyes along with a light build. A Few days ago I was worried about normal things that anyone else would be worried about. Then It happened. At first A pillar shot into the sky then from that point a wave of energy shot outwards to a radius of about 5 or 6 block. I was in the blast radius and when this of energy hit me electricity shot up my spine. In that moment I felt more pain than I had in a life time. My body was lifted up a few feet into the air as crystals formed and deformed around, but then it stopped I dropped to the ground unconscious. The last thing I saw before I blacked out was crystal growing from the palm of my hand.

Chapter 2 by Gwideon

I woke up a few hours later. My muscles where stiff and my bones ached. I wondered absentmindedly how long I had laid there. slowly I picked my self up and Looked about. "Oh my god" where the only words I could say. 5 whole blocks of the historic district had been leveled leaving an ugly scar on the earth. At this time I decided it would be best to start trying to find a slowly stood up groaning as I moved my stiff muscles. "Man you look terrible" Jack said his voice filled with concern. Answering back I said "Yeah I kinda guessed that". "let's get you to a hospital" Jack said as he helped me into his truck. Once he climbed in and started the engine I just sorta passed out. At that moment I had no idea what was in store for me.
